

Every little bit of money is useful and this was very meaningful since it was given by a foundation that directly related to my career.

Grant Jackson, USDA NRCS (2004)

I am very appreciative of the support SWCS has provided to me and to other students who share the common passion for natural resources conservation across the nation.

James Huntwork, USDA NRCS (1990)

The SWCS scholarship helped opened the door for the opportunity to enhance my NCTA degree by earning a B.S. in Agriculture at UNL.

Tim Schaaf, USDA NRCS (1993)

Students from UNL, UNO, Concordia, UNK, Chadron State, & NCTA have benefitted from your generosity.

Memorial or honoraria donations are encouraged, as well as estate donations, large or small. Contact us for more information.

An investment in conservation...

The Nebraska Soil & Water Conservation Foundation (NSWCF) has funded roughly $47,000 in student scholarships in the last decade.

NSWCF is supported by dedicated SWCS members and friends through direct donations and participation in SWCS activities.

Recipient Testimony

I received scholarships from the SWCS and I attended the 74th International SWCS Conference. I was able to network, create lasting friendships, and gain leadership skills that I utilize every day in my career.

Alexa Davis, NDNR (2017, 2018)

I appreciate the support SWCS and its members gave to me as a student. It's led to a very rewarding and meaningful career with a wonderful Agency. Thank you!
